

Mrs. McGowan's Class
Learning as Preschoolers to Develop Leaders of Tomorrow
September

Learning Activities

Domain: Social and Emotional Development

All about Me

Caring about others

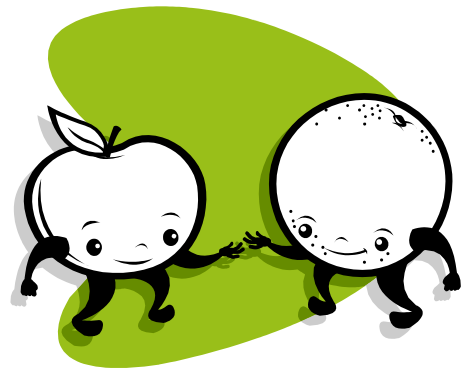

Skill Objective

- Building positive social interaction: me, myself, and others

Ready for School

Skill Objective

- Personal responsibilities - caring for class materials
- Listening and following directions of the teacher

Motor Development:

If you are Happy and you Know song, game, and fine motor skills

Language, word and action association, body awareness and coordination

Domain: Cognitive Development

School Rules

Skill Objective

- Understanding classroom citizenship, teamwork, respect, and sharing
- Developing classroom kindness and courtesy
- Developing new friendships with new peers
- Learning classroom clean up procedures

Objectives for Appropriate Developmental Awareness and Learning

Skill Objective

- Reading - recognition of letters A and B
- Math - recognition of numbers 0 and 1
- Environmental recognition of the shape a circle
- Science - fire and smoke awareness
- Music and movement - singing rhymes and gross motor dancing activities
- Learn together, playing together, building a positive learning environment

Bible Truth: Yes, Jesus Love Me!