Student Withdrawal Notice & Family Exit Survey

We are sad that you have decided to leave Bethany Busy Bee Early Learning Center. If you must withdraw before March 1st, and you give us 30 days written notice by using this form, we will apply your pre-paid May payment to the tuition for the last month attended. However, no refund will be given without the required 30 days written notice before withdrawing your child. No refund of the May tuition will be available after March 1st since it is unlikely that we can fill any spots that late in the year. Please notify us as soon as possible if you plan to withdraw your child, as there may be another child on the waiting list.

Please complete the following information to process your request.
